Section 12. In addition to the foregoing sections, it shall be an unfair method of competition and a deceptive act or practice to engage in the following:

(A) Advertising for sale at a retail establishment the availability of a manufacturer's rebate by displaying the net price of the advertised item, without disclosing the actual selling price in the same font and size as the net price and without providing clear and conspicuous notice in the advertisement that a mail-in rebate is required to achieve the net price, unless the amount of the manufacturer's rebate is fully discounted from the actual selling price at the point of sale. It shall be the retailer's burden to redeem the rebate offered to the consumer.

(B) Refusing to accept a photocopy or other reasonable facsimile of an original sales receipt when the consumer is redeeming a rebate and/or failing to give the consumer at least thirty days from the date of purchase to submit applicable documents for the rebate. Rebate documents shall be considered submitted the date they are postmarked if submitted by mail, or the date they are received by the manufacturer if submitted by telephone, internet or other means of transmission.

(C) Any person, firm, corporation or association who violates this section (Section 12) shall be subject to a civil fine of no greater than five hundred dollars per violation.
